

Blue Mountain Demo Conditions 2018-19

- User must be 18 years old or have a parent/ legal guardian's signature.
 - User signing the release form is the only person permitted to use the demo.
- The demo fee is $60 paid upon pickup. Demos are first come first served.
 - We will not reserve or hold demos.
 - Hours and availability of demos subject to change.
 - Discounts will not be applied to the demo fee.
 - Ski or Snowboard models used as a demo may not necessarily be available for purchase.
 - User must provide valid photo identification.
- User may use up to 3 demos on date of participation. We will not issue credit or rain checks for un-used demos.
- The demo fee does not include boots and or poles.
 - User may provide their own boots. Boots must pass visual inspection and be within industry norms.
 - Boots and poles are available for purchase in True Blue Mountain Sports.
 - Rental boots and poles are available for rent in Blue Mountain's rental shops.
- Demo distribution hours are: store opening to 1 hour before store's closing.
 - Demos must be returned to True Blue Mountain Sports Valley 1/2 hour before store's closing.
- User is responsible for care of demo equipment.
 - If equipment is returned in condition requiring repair work, the user will be responsible for the cost of the repair service.
 - Use of demo equipment is not permitted on rails or off the intended ski trail.
- User is financially responsible for the demo equipment. If equipment is stolen or damaged beyond repair, the user will be responsible for the full retail purchase price of the equipment.
- One $60 demo fee credit may be applied towards purchase of a new ski or snowboard.
 - Demo fee credit is valid for seven days after participation, receipt must be present.
- True Blue Mountain Sports reserves the right to refuse use of demos at any time due to conditions, availability, operating hours, or other factors.

Valid Photo ID: Type _____ Number _____

I have read and agree to these terms of participation.

Signature _____ Date _____

Transaction ID # _____