Bike Park Trivia:

What is the largest bike park in Europe?

The Portes du Soleil region, encompassing multiple linked resorts like Les Gets and Morzine, is considered the largest mountain bike area in Europe, offering access to hundreds of kilometers of trails and uplifted bike parks rather than being a single, distinct park. Individual bike parks such as the one in Les Gets have extensive trail networks, but the true scale of the region is due to the extensive linked network of resorts and trails.
